No. 6/17/2013-CAF&PD/1562 The National Food Security Ordinance, 2013 envisages to provide foodgrains at subsidised rate to the eligible households of the State. The eligible households have been classified as (i) Antyodaya Anna Yojana Household and (ii) Priority Household. Antyodaya Anna Yojana (AAY) households under the AAY Scheme launched by the Central Government on 25th December, 2000 shall be entitled to receive 35 kgs. of foodgrains per month at subsidized rates i.e. rice @ Rs. 3/-, wheat @ Rs. 2/- per kg. and coarse grains @ Rs. 1/- per kg. and each member of Priority Household shall be entitled to receive 5 kgs. of foodgrains at these rates. This will be implemented under the Targeted Public Distribution System.

The Ministry of Consumer Affairs, Food & Public Distribution, Government of India has conveyed that the following population will be covered in the State as per NSSO survey 2011-12 based on the consumption index :
