

GOVERNMENT OF MANIPUR
DIRECTORATE OF TOURISM

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

Imphal, the 19th September, 2016

No. 6/304/2016-DTSM: In accordance with the decision of Organizing Committee of Manipur Sangai Festival, 2016, the art, craft, tradition and culture of various communities of the State are being showcased in the form of Heritage Park comprising of 15 (fifteen) traditional exhibition huts in the northern half of Hapta Kangjeibung, Palace compound which were constructed during Manipur Sangai Festival 2015.

2. In this connection, Department of Tourism, Government of Manipur invites detailed proposals from creative, reputed, eligible, artistic Firms/Agencies for refurbishment and maintenance of the Heritage Park and to partner the State Government in showcasing the rich State legacy of heritage, culture, art and craft. The handloom, handicraft, artifacts, equipments and art forms (music & dances) of each tribe would be showcased by the Agency/Firm to make the heritage park lively and real. The Agency/Firm would be required to arrange for 2 (two) volunteers (1 male and 1 female) representing each tribe in traditional costumes to man the huts.

3. The above conditions are indicative and the Firm/Agency can come up with innovative and creative ideas for showcasing the rich heritage and tourism potential of all communities of the State in artistic form through the Heritage Park. The techno-commercial proposal should also contain a Power Point/Multimedia Presentation containing details of plan for refurbishment and maintenance of each hut during the period of the festival.

4. The proposal should reach the Office of the undersigned during office hours by 4:00 pm of 03.10.2016(Monday). The Presentation before Secretary (Tourism), Government of Manipur in her office at South Block, Old Secretariat, Imphal will be held on 04.10.2016 (Tuesday) at 2:30 pm.
